

URBAN FLOOD RISK REDUCTION USING LOCAL DRAINAGE NETWORK STORAGE CAPACITY

Project Dissemination Event Wednesday 11th July 2018 // Veolia, Paris

30 rue Madeleine Vionnet 93300
Aubervilliers, Paris

Meet the project partners to gain an understanding of how the system is implemented to reduce local flood and environmental risk

To register for this free event, please click here

Time	Activity	Organisation
10:00	Registration	All
10:30	Problem overview - urban flooding, existing mitigation strategies, CEN TAUR™	University of Sheffield
10:45	Project Group and Funding Overview	University of Sheffield
10:50	Introduction of Coimbra- the CEN TAUR™ pilot site	University of Coimbra
10:55	CEN TAUR™ product description and features	EMS and Steinhardt
11:35	Discussion	All
11:45	The Coimbra Pilot	Aguas de Coimbra and University of Coimbra
12:15	The Toulouse Pilot	Veolia and University of Sheffield
12:45	Discussion	All
13:00	Lunch	All
14:15	CEN TAUR™ site selection, installation and commissioning	Eawag, EMS and Steinhardt
14:25	CEN TAUR™ marketing roll-out	EMS and Steinhardt
14:35	Future developments for local autonomous RTC	University of Sheffield
14:45	EU funding	EASME, European Commission

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 641931.

www.em-solutions.co.uk